FERODO OFFERS THE OPTIMUM BALANCE OF BRAKING PERFORMANCE AND DURABILITY

We are proud to announce that our R&D team has developed new Ferodo brake pads, based upon ProTec S® technology by Knorr-Bremse. The pads utilise innovative friction materials, specially designed to meet the different OE requirements of the new Mercedes-Benz Actros's front and rear axles. They also include a number of features that improve performance, service life and reduce noise levels. In addition, a new green coating helps to generate balanced performance throughout the pads' lifetime, as from the first stop, and both front and rear brake pads exceed OE requirements with special attention to the prevention of disc cracking. The new homologated Ferodo brake pads for the new Mercedes-Benz Actros will be introduced to our Aftermarket programme in the first half of 2012.
